

STATEMENT OF ETHICS

Responsibilities of authors:

- will send only original contributions that respect the current norms regarding plagiarism
- will declare that the manuscript has not been published or submitted for publication to another journal
- will state whether they have obtained permission to publish original material within the manuscript
- will declare any conflict of interest

Responsibilities of editors:

- will ensure the confidentiality of information about manuscripts received
- will ensure the confidentiality of the manuscript review process
- will liaise with authors and referents
- will analyze the received reports and make the decision to publish or reject the manuscript

Responsibilities of reviewers:

- will maintain the confidentiality of information about manuscripts received for review
- will evaluate manuscripts strictly on the basis of originality and content
- will report any possible conflict of interest to the editorial board
- will report any suspected plagiarism to the editorial board